

“Take up the Whole
Armor of God”

Ephesians 6:10-20

Psalm 27:1-5

“The LORD is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The LORD is the stronghold of my life; of whom shall I be afraid? When evildoers assail me to eat up my flesh, my adversaries and foes, it is they who stumble and fall. Though an army encamp against me, my heart shall not fear; though war arise against me, yet I will be confident.”

Psalm 27:1-5

“One thing have I asked of the LORD, that will I seek after: that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to gaze upon the beauty of the LORD and to inquire in his temple.

For he will hide me in his shelter in the day of trouble; he will conceal me under the cover of his tent; he will lift me high upon a rock.”

Philippians 2:12-13

“<sup>12</sup> Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, so now, not only as in my presence but much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling, <sup>13</sup> for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure.”

Three Implications:

1. We have to come out of isolation and learn to “do life” with one another.
2. We have to be willing to look not only to our own needs but also to the needs of others.
3. We have to be willing to correct and even rebuke one another, when it is necessary.
